Why Join?

NACM is the most progressive, professional court management association in court administration. To date, we have more than 1,900 members consisting of judicial officers, court managers, supervisors, clerks, consultants, researchers, analysts, teachers and other professionals in the field.

Log on today and visit our updated Web site at www.nacmnet.org for access to valuable resources and our online membership application. If you renew your membership online you will save $10 off your annual membership fee.

For more than 20 years NACM members have continued to refine the profession of court administration.

Members have the opportunity to network with other professionals, build new relationships and work together to create new opportunities for our courts. You can also find us on:
